

Tova Olson

Tova Olson obtained a BTS (CLBI) and a BA in Music (Augustana) studying both classical and jazz piano as well as hand drumming. She also holds her ARCT in piano performance from the Royal Conservatory of Music. Tova is an experienced piano teacher, accompanist & organist and has served as worship & music coordinator and principal organist at various churches. She has taught Contemporary Piano and Hand Drumming at the University of Alberta, Augustana Campus and worked with the Korora (formerly Kokopelli) Choir Association as singer, accompanist and percussion coach. Tova was the music director for About Time Productions, a children's drama troop, for over 10 years and is now working with Phoenix Productions in the same capacity. In her spare time she plays with the Battle River Big Band and has arranged and composed music for numerous ensembles.